What past participants say

“I really enjoyed the course and found the material both engaging and informative. As someone fairly new to the industry, the material progressed from the basics to more advanced concepts well. Lance and Mark were exceptional and their insights from the industry over the years were invaluable.”

“CCx is central to NZ’s goals of energy efficiency and low emissions, and the course was an excellent source of information and expertise in this area. I would recommend this course to anyone responsible for the management and control of HVAC systems, or who engages contractors.”
